

STAY CAREER MINDED DURING COVID-19

Career Services wants to assist you in achieving your career goals in the midst of COVID-19 and social distancing. Below you will find tips, tools, and resources to help guide in your career preparation and job search during this time. Our office is available for resume and cover letter construction and feedback, mock interviews, career decision making consults, and much more. The situation is changing quickly so keep up with the latest information on our Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/MSUCareer>.

TIPS:

1. Engage in Career Exploration based on your interests, passions, and strengths in order to direct the focus of your career and job search.
2. Develop a Career Map to help you set goals and identify the steps and skills needed to achieve those goals.
3. Polish up your resume, cover letter, and reference sheet so that you are ready to apply for open positions.
4. Network with professionals, hiring managers, and companies and build your personal brand using LinkedIn and other social media sites.
5. Learn a new skill (technical or transferrable) and gain more knowledge about your chosen major and/or career field.
6. Practice and prepare for virtual interviews conducted via phone, video, or computer assisted technology.
