MSU VT Program Compliance:

All medical forms listed must be completed by the end of the first week of the fall semester. All required immunizations can be completed by MSU Counseling and Health Services found on the 1st floor of Allie Young Hall. Your personal healthcare provider can administer the required immunizations but you will need to submit official documentation to MSU Counseling and Health Services via the Online Student Health portal (www.moreheadstate.edu/chs) once you have been accepted into the MSU VT Program in order to obtain immunization compliance for MSU VT. The PACHA form MUST be completed by MSU Counseling and Health Services found on the 1st floor of Allie Young Hall. It is available for printing at:

http://www.moreheadstate.edu/uploadedFiles/Sites/Sub\_Sites/Counseling\_and\_Health\_Services/PACHA%20final%20July%202013.pdf. You will be expected to pay a $35.00 fee for the completion of the PACHA form, a $20.00 required clinical compliance fee, and a $15.00 required veterinary technology compliance fee to the MSU Counseling and Health Services. Payment options include credit card, check, cash or money order made out to Morehead State University.

As a conflict of interest in client/patient confidentiality, MSU Vet Tech students are prohibited from working or volunteering at regional animal shelters or rescues that are client of MSU Veterinary Technology. Once accepted into the VT program, students will be required to resign from those positions.
